WASHINGTON, D. C.

POLICE COURT.—The following cases were disposed of today:

Andrew Whiting, colored, charged with disorderly conduct, was fined $2.50.

William F. Webster, charged with feloniously assaulting George L. Simpson, was admitted to bail in the sum of $500 to appear at the next grand jury term of the Corporation Court.

James Mathews, colored, charged with assaulting and beating Susan Mathews, was fined $5.

Night Report.—Last night was cloudy and warm. Three prisoners were at the station house.

THE LATE MR. BALLINGER.—The funeral of the late Mr. John Ballinger, who committed suicide at his home in lower Fairfax yesterday, will take place on Monday at 11 o'clock. At the written request of the deceased the funeral will be private. An inquest was held by Justice Triplett yesterday and the verdict returned was that the deceased came to his death by a gunshot wound inflicted by himself. Assisted yesterday by Mr. Ballinger left notes giving directions as to his affairs and stating that he wished to be buried quietly.

VERDICT SET ASIDE.—In the case of Watkins vs. W., A. & M. V. Ry. Co. Judge Nicol this morning set aside the verdict of the jury and granted a new trial. He stated in his opinion that under the law he could set aside only two verdicts and that the next verdict in this case would have to stand. In setting aside the verdict he held that the plaintiff had not established the fact that negligence on the part of the railroad company was responsible for Mr. Watkins's death.

SPECIAL MUSIC.—The choir of St. Peter's Church, Washington, will render a special programme of music at St. Mary's Church, in this city, at the 4 o'clock services tomorrow evening.

As will be remembered, this choir choir that rendered such an excellent programme of music at the dedication of the new St. Mary's Church a few years ago. The choir will be under the direction of Mr. Lucius Randolph, who is well known in musical circles in this city.

FOR THE GALVESTON SUFFERERS.—Mr. Gardner L. Booth, as treasurer of the Galveston fund, today sent to the mayor of that city two drafts aggregating $524.75. Of this sum $219 was contributed through Mr. Charles R. Hooff and the balance was the amount realized from the concert and from several subscriptions received by Mr. Booth.

ALL OVERERS of fine needle work should attend the sale at D. Bendheim & Sons, Monday.

They are going to sell embroideries as fine as they can be made and patterns that are beautiful, at prices almost giving them away. See their advertisement for a partial description of the sale.
